BOARD TESTING

BUILT TOUGHER. LASTS LONGER.

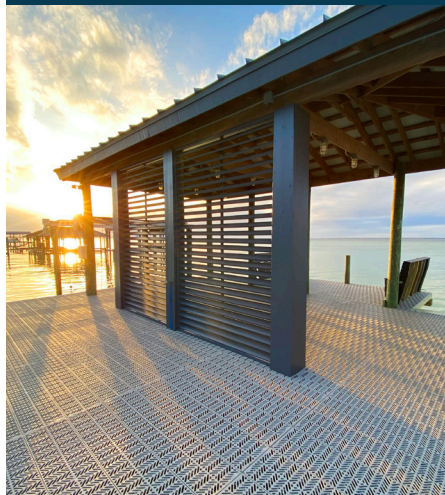

Titan Deck marine decking boards deliver reliable performance with competitive load ratings and exceptional durability ensuring long-term safety. While steady underfoot, Titan boards are designed to bend under pressure, not break. At greater spans, Titan boards prove their resilience with consistent performance, maintaining structural integrity while flexing under pressure.

Titan boards withstand high impacts without cracking or shattering. Engineered for extreme durability, Titan Deck boards deliver unmatched performance in real-world conditions where others fail.

Testing was conducted by an independent third-party laboratory to ensure impartiality and accurate comparison. Data reflects performance under consistent conditions for all boards.
